

Federation of Jewish Communities of the Former C.I.S.

The Federation of Jewish Communities of the Former C.I.S. (FJCCIS) is the central Jewish organization for the Jews living in the fifteen republics that comprised the former Soviet Union.

The FJCCIS operates hundreds of institutions in over 400 cities, including Hebrew schools, social clubs, senior citizen centers, day care centers and food banks.

The FJCCIS is a unique umbrella organization that provides support for social, religious, financial and health programs for Jews residing in the former Soviet Union countries.
