

Global Jewish Assistance and Relief Network

The Global Jewish Assistance and Relief Network (GJARN), was founded in 1992 with the mission of providing help to needy Jewish communities wherever they are found. To date, GJARN's efforts have provided over $130 million dollars worth of food, clothing and medicines to millions of Jews in the former Soviet Union, Cuba, Israel and even in the United States.

GJARN operates a sophisticated network of food distribution programs in Russia and Ukraine and works closely with the United States Department of Agriculture in delivering aid to those most in need. In Israel, GJARN has established Bank Mazon, Israel's first national food bank. Since 2001, Bank Mazon has collected more than five million dollars worth of surplus food and redistributes them through a network of more than 130 local charities.
