

Torah Umesorah

Contributors to Torah Umesorah, the central authority for traditional Jewish day schools in the US. Today, Torah Umesorah's membership consists of over 675 day schools and yeshivos, with a total student enrollment of over 190,000. There is hardly an existing community of Orthodox Jews that does not have access to a day school education.

Torah Umesorah continues to found new day schools. and they continue to serve as the pre-eminent support system for the schools, providing Personnel Placement, Curriculum Development, Publications, Principal and Teacher Training, School Supervision, Resource Materials for Teachers, Conferences and Conventions, a Hemshech Program for over 1000 teenagers, and more. They provide indispensable materials upon which teachers rely to effectively educate their students. Torah Umesorah promotes Jewish learning in an orthodox framework and produces learning materials for day schools.
